PROCEEDS ISSUED BY THE SECRETARY OF THE HOUSE
RECEIVING VISITING PASSENGER PRIME MINISTER JUNEJO

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
JULY 16, 1966

It is both a pleasure and a privilege to be your host at this luncheon in your honor, at the start of your first official visit to the United States. As you will no doubt see, rings together many old friends of Pakistan. We you will make many more new friends for your entry during the course of what we hope will be a ay.

Spurline

Mr. Prime Minister, over the past seven years Pakistan and the United States have built a vital, cooperative relationship. We have worked together to deal with which we share a strong and abiding interest:

Don't Stand With
"It..." First
Selling 3 must be the main message.

- countering the threat to South and Southeast Asia of Soviet aggression in Afghanistan,
- promoting peace, stability, and democracy in South Asia,
- preventing the further spread of nuclear weapons, and
- combating the worldwide scourge of narcotic trafficking.

Although we have made significant progress in all of these areas, we still have important work to do. I draw confidence from our very productive discussions with you today that we will succeed, putting your vision and passion, all moving forward together.
